

Facts about Birds

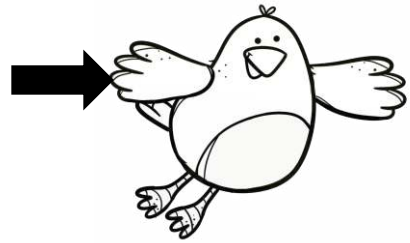

- Birds lay eggs in a nest and their babies hatch from the eggs.
- Birds have feathers, wings and they fly.
- Birds have hollow bones to help them fly.
- Not all birds can fly. One example is a penguin. A penguin is a type of bird that can't fly.
- Birds are warm blooded.
- A group of birds together is called a flock.

Bird Words

Match the words to the picture.

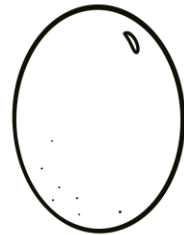

NEST

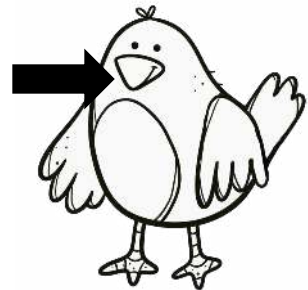

EGG

WING

BEAK

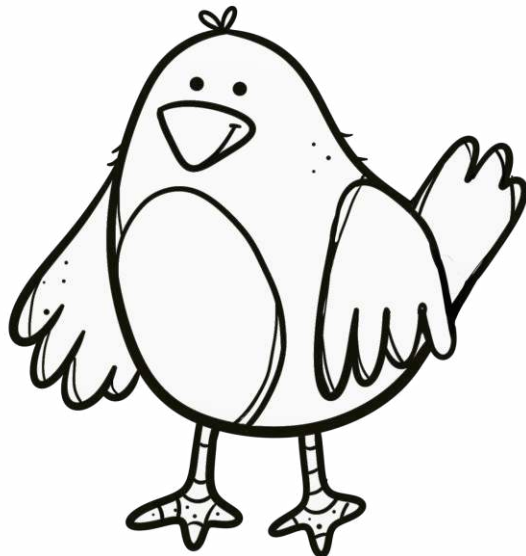

Handwriting Practice

bird

nest

egg

Terms of Use:

For educational purposes only. Not for re-sale in any form.

Copyright ©2016 www.craftcreatecalm.com All Rights Reserved.

Clip Art Provided By:

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Chirp-Graphics>

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/The-3am-Teacher>